The History of Central Christian University of SC, Inc.

In Mims, Florida, on July 15, 1978, with much prayer and consultation, the C. E. Graham Baptist Bible Institute and Family and Pastoral Counseling Center were founded by Reverend Dr. Charles E. Graham, Pastor of the Greater St. James Baptist Church, Mims, Florida. It operated for six years as an extension of Faith, Evangelist, Christian Bible college in Morgantown, Kentucky, and the National Christian Counselors Association (NCCA) in Sarasota, Florida.

The compelling need for such an opportunity became a challenge for Dr. Graham when he – a young pastor at the age of 37 years- discovered that his congregation was in need of deacons. Upon asking a bright young man who appeared to possess a hunger for spiritual knowledge to consider training to become a deacon, Dr. Graham was confronted with the weakness that most Black people in that area silently and secretly carried. This young man could not read or write. He desired to study and to train; therefore, he asked Dr. Graham to teach him to read and to write.

In concern for the dignity of the young man and at the admonition of the Holy Spirit, Dr. Graham consented to teach the arising deacon if he would carry Dr. Graham to lunch. The deal was sealed with a handshake.

As Dr. Graham began the work that had been preconditioned, other preachers and lay workers in other churches who had been recycling sermons from others and themselves because they also could not read and write, began to seek out this young “teacher-preacher” to teach them. These spiritual soldiers no longer wanted to preach “Hear Say Sermons.” They desperately wanted to read the Word and have the Word to speak to them so that God’s wisdom would abound. They wanted to be independent biblical scholars who created their sermons as the Holy Spirit prompted them. They wanted to interact with each other and articulate the gifts given them by the Holy Spirit. They became a cohesive, interdependent, yet individual group of learners. The fire had been ignited that could only be quenched by Knowledge, Wisdom, and Application.

After six years of operating as a Bible Institute and Family and Pastoral Counseling Center College, a need became obvious for the addition of a Bible college and Theological Seminary. On May 1, 1986, an amendment was made changing the scope of the Bible Institute and Counseling Center to the C. E. Graham Baptist Bible Institute/College/Seminary, still operating as an Extension of Faith Evangelistic Schools. In August 1988, Faith Evangelistic Schools was transferred to the leadership of Dr. Michael A Smith due to the illness and death of Dr. James Bishop, the Founder of Faith Evangelistic Schools. After much prayer, another amendment was made to the Constitution to become an independent school and to be chartered in the State of South Carolina. In May 1993, the C. E. Graham Baptist Bible Institute/College/Seminary was chartered by the State of South Carolina as a non-profit corporation, operating at 4916 Fairfield Road, Columbia, SC. It became an independent school affiliated with Faith Baptist College and Seminary, Church Point, Louisiana, as a Satellite school with full accreditation from the American Federation of Christian Colleges and Schools and became a full member of the National Christian Counselors Association (NCCA), one of the largest associations of Christian Counselors in the world, headquartered in Sarasota, Florida.

The School also made a request to the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education to be exempt from the State Licensure requirements, offering studies leading to degrees in the areas of Bible Study, Theology, Counseling, Church Leadership, and Christian Education.

On October 11, 1994, exempt status was granted clearance using degree titles such as Associate of ..., Bachelor of ..., Master ..., and Doctor of Theology, etc., which clearly label such degrees as professional.

On June 10, 2001, the school made another amendment to its bylaws to change its operational name to the C. E. Graham Bible Schools, Inc., because of the attraction of a wide variety of denominational backgrounds. On January 3, 2007, the School was chartered as Central Christian University of South Carolina, Inc.

To this date, Central Christian University of SC, Inc. is independent, liberal, and local church-oriented, meeting a neglected need in the field of Christian Education, Counseling, and Ministry. The University is missionary, both in belief and practice. Both undergraduate and graduate programs, certificates, and diplomas are offered. Central Christian University of South Carolina, Inc. was accredited with Transworld Accreditation until 2013. As the University has continued to prosper, Dr. Graham and the Board of Directors decided to increase the prestige and the appeal of the University by applying for accreditation with The Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE). In February 2017, the ABHE Commission on Accreditation awarded Central Christian University of South Carolina, Inc. "Applicant Status." The University endeavors to complete this journey towards full accreditation with the Association for Biblical Higher Education with committed diligence.

Class Attendance

Absenteeism in class: A student is allowed to miss a class during a semester one time per credit hour for the given course (e.g., 3 times for 3 hours course). These absences are without penalty as long as the reasons for the absence are acceptable to the instructor. The student must attend class a minimum of 70% of the time in order to be given credit for the course (except by consent from the faculty in extenuating circumstances).

It is assumed that students will make the most of the educational opportunities available to them by regularly and punctually attending class periods. Therefore, regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done in the class.

A student absent from a class period is subject to a loss of "privilege status," and the instructor may reduce the student's grade or deny credit for that course unless the student satisfactorily accounts for the absence. Distance Education students must make a monthly call-in or email to the Student Services Department.

Federal laws protect the rights of all students. CCU of SC observes these laws that provide that the institution will maintain the confidentiality of each student's official education record, as related to access to or the release of information. All educational records are kept in the Registrar's Office and may be inspected on normal working days by appointment when the University is in regular session, except during registration periods.
2. Students who wish to inspect and review their educational records must request an appointment in writing to the Registrar's Office. For students who are currently enrolled, appointments will be scheduled no later than five working days after receipt of the request for an appointment. For students who are no longer enrolled, appointments will be scheduled no longer than fifteen days after receipt of the request.

Since students have access from anywhere at any time, the instructor must ensure that the person performing the work is the person identified. Daily screenshots are taken during our class sessions to verify attendance. Some safeguards such as student must login, to join in the meeting on zoom.com and only students are given the correct meeting ID and password from a secure source in order to participate in the session to complete their coursework. (The admit button will let the instructor know when a student wants to enter the session). Instructors will save individual important assignments of their students in a file of their computer or make hard copies to be filed. If students commit fraud by providing answers of previous assignment assessment, cheating is constituted, and the student (whether spouse or classmates) will receive a zero for the assignment. Procedures for taking exam and submitting test questions are detailed in the procedures listed in Appendix A.

Students who are enrolled in online learning must receive a briefing and participate in a conference at the beginning of the term as to utilization of the zoom program correctly during their semester coursework at CCU. They are given specific guidelines in participating in classroom assignment, provided the class ID and correct password in a timely manner before the class begins. They are required to bring their picture ID with them and present them when turning in their homework assignments. The instructor will take a screen photo shot to confirm that the person completing the assignment is the same individual.

The following guidelines are implemented:

- Teachers will inform students in advance the date and time for class meetings and timely reporting on. Teachers must technically admit the students when their names appear on the entrance key on zoom.com
- Students are notified by email at least three (3) days what handouts, supplies and references along with the designated textbook and syllabus are required for each class.
- The mission of the college is stated frequently during each class meeting so everyone will acknowledge it

- Previous lessons are reviewed, and the instructor may give general comments on graded assignments and how they can be improved if necessary.
- Students must bring their laptops with their webcam on, so teacher may observe students during the class sessions and have available a workable printer to send clear copies of assignments when submission is required.
- Students are given a valid I cloud recording after class if they must leave early or are absent from a class session
- Rubrics are given for grading assessments: journals, final written assignment projects and sermons or discussions for the student's benefit in preparing final projects.
- Clear directions are given for MLA requirements in presenting the correct format on all written assignments. If students plagiarize any assignments, they will receive a failing grade or allowed time to complete and resend the new assignment for grading. These projects are covered in the Faculty Handbook under Faculty and Student Relationships.
